DETAILED ACTION

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

I. Claims 23-26, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the head has a shape that is pointed with a 70 degree angle, a 110 degree angle a blade shape, or is rounded or semispherical and conical.

II. Claim 27, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the head is made of steel, titanium or aluminum, and has been polished or had a layer of deposition.

III. Claim 28, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the device has less than 1000 watts and is moved vertically between 2 and 4 micrometers.

IV. Claim 29, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the vibration frequency is between 20 and 70 thousand Hz..

V. Claim 30, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the applied pressure is upto 2 bar.

VI. Claim 31, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the movement is limited to a speed of 120 meters/min.

VII. Claim 32, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the substrate is flat or arched of glass or plastic or polycarbonate, the plate having received a treatment.

VIII. Claim 33, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the film is made of plastic, polypropylene, polyvinylchloride, or polyethylene terephthalate.

IX. Claim 34, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the film is between 20 and 200 micrometers thick.

X. Claim 35, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the substrate includes a glazing unit coated with a metal oxide layer or TiO_2 .

XI. Claim 36, drawn to a method of cutting having the special technical feature of the cutting allows a sandblasting process or fit an accessory or carry out a bonding or make a hole.

XII. Claim 37, drawn to a method of protecting glass having the special technical feature of a layer is deposited on a face of a substrate.

XIII. Claim 38, drawn to a substrate with a cut film thereon.

XIV. Claims 39 and 40, drawn to an apparatus capable of making an ultrasound cut, and including a table.

2. Claim 21 will be examined with the election of any one of groups I-XI or XIV.

Claim 22 will be examined with the election of any one of groups I-III, V or VI. Claim 21 link(s) inventions I through XI, and Claim 22 link(s) inventions I-III, V and VI. The restriction requirement between the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 21 and/or claim 22. Upon the indication of allowability of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be rejoined and fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104 Claims that require all the limitations of an allowable linking claim will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

Applicant(s) are advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, the allowable linking claim, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 443 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-XIV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: each of the groups disclosed as above provides for special technical features not otherwise provided for in each other group.

4. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

- (a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;
- (b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;
- (c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);
- (d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;
- (e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
